Hey Love

From old-school matchmaking to new-age swiping. More than 800 respondents took a Play A Part survey to share their views on dating and marriage.

MOST SINGLE RESPONDENTS STARTED DATING AND THINKING ABOUT FINDING A LIFE PARTNER WHEN THEY WERE YOUNGER THAN 25 YEARS OLD

Before 18 years old

Age where most respondents started dating

22 – 25 years old

Age where most respondents started thinking seriously about finding life partners

MOST SINGLE RESPONDENTS ENJOY GOING ON DATES, BUT NEED MORE OPPORTUNITIES, TIME AND ENERGY TO DATE AND MEET NEW PEOPLE

More than half of single respondents go on dates at least once a week

2 in 3 singles enjoy going on dates.

Male respondents had more positive views toward dating

In order to have more dating opportunities:

singles said that they needed more opportunities to meet new people

singles said that they needed more time and energy

SOCIAL ACTIVITIES AND ONLINE DATING ARE THE MOST POPULAR WAYS TO MEET PEOPLE

Most popular ways in which singles improve their chances of finding a partner:

6 in 10 took part in more social activities

4 in 10

agree

6 in 10 used a dating app/website (most common for males)

3 in 10

disagree

4 in 10 asked family and friends to introduce someone

Online dating is a more effective way to meet new people compared to other methods

3 in 10

neutral